

Sobia Kapadia

Sobia Kapadia is currently Senior Research Manager of the Gender, Justice, and Security Hub. She is leading the conversation on Sustainable Livelihood, Migration and Displacement. She is trained as an architect and has extensive work experience in humanitarian aid and international development. With 20 years of experience, she is well versed in sustainable development practices, effective government, policy and advocacy. She has worked in various conflict and disaster ridden spaces with expertise in Disaster Risk management and Climate Change. She is also part of the All-Parties Parliamentary group for Afghan Women and Girls and also a trustee of Women, Peace, and Participation.